

1. If you had lived in France, you would have spoken French. (This is about how the past could be different.)
2. If you had lived in France, you would speak French. (This is about how the present could be different.)
3. If you lived in France, you would speak French. (This is in the imagination.)
4. If you live in France, you will speak French. (This might happen in the future.)
5. If you live in France, you speak French. (This is what usually happens.)
6. If you live in France, speak French! (Imperative, in the future)

1. If he has time, he _____.
2. If my mother calls, please _____.
3. If I have enough money, I _____.
4. If it snows tonight, _____.
5. If you see my brother, _____.
6. If I taught this class, I _____.

7. I would help you if you _____.
8. I would have helped you if you _____.
9. He will make you some coffee if you _____.
10. It will snow tomorrow if _____.
11. You won't get hungry during class if you _____.
12. I don't get thirsty during the night if I _____.
13. Call me if you _____.
14. Ask me a question if you _____.
15. You would be happier if you _____.